Planning for German Day.

The United German societies of New London county continue with the preparations for the German day to be held on June 25. The newly painted German Schuetzen hall has been secured. This place, famed for its beauties, is only a few minutes walk from the Taftville briege. Invitations to participate are now being sent to all German societies of it's county. It is probable that a chorus of many voices will entertain with cancert numbers. Indications now point toward an strendance of about 1000 Germans and their families and friends.

CITY UNION KING'S DAUGHTERS

Quarterly and Social Meeting Held at Johnson Home-Charitable Circle Provided Entertainment.

The quarterly and social meeting of the City union of The King's Daughters was held Tuesday afternoon at the Johnson home. Mrs. W. H. Dawley, chairman, presided. The devotional service was led by Miss M. E. Wattles. After reciting the Lord's Prayer in unison, the responsive reading was used, which was given at the conference in Willimantic. This gave the object of the Order of King's Daughters, its motto, watchword and badge, and told of its incorporation. It was organized in 1886 at the home of Mrs. Margaret Bottome in New York city. The King's Sons were admitted in 1901. At the end of the first year there were 7,000 members. Circles are now found in 29 states and in 8 provinces of Canada, besides in foreign countries. This part of the service closed with the hymn, Lead as We Go.
